

Sarah Lim

Tucked among the many was a woman who wants to change the way the world perceives flowers. Sarah Lim began her journey into the floral cosmos by founding her own business, Poppy. Not only with the love for flowers, Sarah work closely in the creative industry on all different kinds of local and overseas projects. With the eagerness to explore and the search of unique breeds of flowers that Sarah convets, she brought her works onto the international platform by working together with talents from around the world. One of her accomplishments was her participation in a workshop held in Sydney-Australia. Her beautiful flora work was published in the renowned Magnolia Rouge Magazine and got invited to Florida for the Team Flower Conference to showcase her art in flowers.

While emphasizing the importance of originality, Sarah also commits to quality and strives to present the finest execution of all floral art. In addition, to advocate the art of floral arrangement and paintings, Sarah shares her flower knowledge and experience through hands-on workshops that focus in giving in-depth tutelage while encouraging students to investigate and develop their own signature styles. Sarah's work has been featured in magazines including Prestige, L'officiel, Once Wed, Magnolia Rouge, Style wedding, Wedding Scoop, as well as numerous wedding websites, newspapers and photo shoots.

The honour of contributing to this judiciously curated collection of exquisite artworks has brought Sarah nearer to her dream of a lifetime project in the never ending quest. Having seen the magnificent beauty that Mother Nature has to give, Sarah wants to share the ephemeral charm with people.
